Hi Edel,

Please see the email below from my Compliance department. Our customer is asking for a credit for this one bottle. Let me know how you would like to handle a credit on our side and if you would like us to return this to you. Thanks, and I hope all has been well.

Sincerely,
Charlie

Subject: Biktarvy issue with a customer

Good afternoon,
Yesterday afternoon we received a call from one of our customers with a claim that the Biktarvy bottle he bought from us and dispensed to a patient was filled with the wrong medication. The Product was Biktary, NDC 61958-2501-01, Lot CCZCFA which we purchased from Gentek. I spoke with the pharmacist today to get a better idea of what happened. He dispensed the whole, unopened bottle to the patient, the patient took the bottle and filled her med box with it. She noticed the color of the pill was different but assumed that the manufacturer changed it. The product inside the bottle was another Gilead HIV medication called Stribild. Please let me know how you would like to proceed in documenting and crediting the customer's account.

Thank you,
